

Francesca Galeazzi, MD, PhD

Born in Treviso (TV), on September 24, 1965

Resident at Viale IV Novembre 98, 31100 Treviso (TV)

Education and Training

1990: Degree in Medicine and Surgery – University of Padua

1994: Specialization in Gastroenterology and Digestive Endoscopy – University of Padua

1999: PhD in Alcoholology – University of Padua

1996–1999: Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Intestinal Disease Research Unit, McMaster University – Chedoke Hospital, Hamilton, Ontario, CANADA

Professional Experience

2000–2005: Freelance Gastroenterologist, Gastroenterology Unit, University Hospital of Padua

2005–present: First-Level Medical Executive, Gastroenterology Unit, University Hospital of Padua Scientific Societies

Adjunct Professor, School of Specialization in Gastroenterology, University of Padua

Scientific Society Activities

2010–2014: Board Member, Italian Group for the Study of Gastrointestinal Motility (now SIMGEN)

Since 2019: Active Member of the SIMGEN Board of Arbitrators

2011–2020: Member of the National Commission on Functional and Motor Disorders, AIGO (National Association of Hospital Gastroenterologists)

2016–2018: President, AIGO Veneto–Trentino Alto Adige Section

2020–2024: Member of the National Executive Board of AIGO

2024 – present: Coordinator Neurogastroenterology and Motility Commission, AIGO

2025: National Board SINGEM

Dr Galeazzi is specifically involved in the study and management of motor and functional disorders of the gastrointestinal tract, including rare gastrointestinal motor diseases, with a multidisciplinary and transitional clinical approach. She has carried out both basic and clinical research in this field, also in collaboration with national and international groups